

Name: _____

Safely Repositioning Residents in Bed

Complete the crossword below

- gloves communication training competency weight kardex reposition
- bodymechanics teamwork bed lifting returndemonstration dependent turning
- mechanicallift glidesheet awareness

Across

2. cooperative or coordinated effort by caregivers to get tasks done (teamwork)
4. interacting with the resident and/or other caregivers for a smooth reposition (communication)
7. employees often get injured when they perform this action to move a resident in bed (reposition)
10. knowledge and understanding of what is around you (awareness)
11. the proper techniques for keeping your back straight to avoid injuries during repositioning (bodymechanics)
14. a machine used to assist with repositioning large residents (mechanicallift)
15. during a reposition, there is no lifting or pulling - just shift your... (weight)
16. follow the instructions here for how to reposition the resident (kardex)
17. during this operation, it is best to push, not pull the resident (turning)

Down

1. what is given to you upon hire, each month and after an employee injury (training)
3. hands-on exercise utilized to achieve competency with glide sheets (returndemonstration)
5. make sure this is at the right height before repositioning resident (bed)
6. all caregivers are required to wear these when working with residents (gloves)
8. when you do this properly, you always keep your back straight and never bend at the waist (lifting)
9. residents classified as this require a glide sheet & 2 caregivers for repositioning (dependent)
12. the ability to do repositioning successfully and efficiently (competency)
13. tool used to reduce caregiver effort when repositioning residents in bed (glidesheet)